

Flements of Fantasy

(Example)

Fantasy uses magic and other supernatural phenomena within characters, plot, setting and theme. This genre often takes place in fictional worlds where magic is common. (The Guardians of the Galaxy, Harry Potter, Aladdin, The Hobbit)

Book Title Aladdin

Author An Arabic Folktale adapted by Disney

List & Describe Main Characters *Aladdin-kind-hearted teenage thief/"Diamond in the Rough" *Jasmine-Arabian princess who sneaks out of the palace *Genie-fast	Year & Time An ancient city in the 1700's during the Arabian Nights or the Islamic Golden Age	Imaginary Setting The Arabian City of Agrabah The Cave of Wonders The Palace
Antagonist (Evil Character) Jafar-The Sultan's advisor that plot to overthrow him. Iago-sidekick pet parrot that supports Jafar	Supporting Characters Abu-Aladdin's thieving pet monkey The Sultan-Princess Jasmine's father	Plot: Good vs Evil Jafar wants to overthrow the Sultan and become the most powerful ruler in the land. He needs to get the magical lamp from the Cave of Wonders to make this wish, but it can only be entered and retrieved by "The Diamond in the Rough". Aladdin agrees to get the lamp for Jafar because he is promised riches and wants to impress Princess Jasmine.
Magical Elements Talking parrot Magic lamp Wish granting genie Flying Carpet	Theme: Moral message or lesson of the story *True strength & wealth comes from within. *Be yourself and people will see your true character and like you for you are. *Be kind and help others. Good character is more valuable than riches.	Solution Aladdin exposes Jafar's evil plot and tricks him into becoming an enslaved genie He tells Jasmine that he actually lives on the street but for his good character the Sultan promotes him. He also frees the genie, marries Jasmine and they live happily ever after.

Elements of Fantasy

Fantasy uses magic and other supernatural phenomena within characters, plot, setting and theme. This genre often takes place in fictional worlds where magic is common. (The Guardians of the Galaxy, Harry Potter, Aladdin, The Hobbit)

Book Title _____

Author _____

List & Describe Main Characters	Year & Time	Imaginary Setting
Antagonist (Evil Character)	Supporting Characters	Plot: Good vs Evil
Magical Elements	Theme: Moral message or lesson of the story	Solution

